for Tim, who loved the woods and small animals

Gay Gawron graduated from The Montserrat College of Art in 1982. She worked as a textile designer in New York, designing items seen on ordinary household items, before she moved to New Hampshire, where she enjoys painting New Hampshire landscapes. Her work can be seen at www.worldgalleryonline.com.

The purple lilac is our flower.
Gardeners watch them hour by hour.

Piles of pumpkins by the road
Glisten when the air is cold.

Syrup buckets are on the trees,
Feet no longer have to freeze.
